

Self-Introduction/Self-Reflection

Becoming a Sovran Wolverine is choosing a new world future within Natural Law. Transparency demands that you recognize the benefits as well as the commitments upon your adoption into the Wolverine Clan.

The new Sovran you: Wolverines are adopted into the Wolverine Clan, led by Headsman Hemajolas. We live within Natural Law together with our Headsman Popois, our Grandfather Maathlaatlaa, our sisters, our brothers, with loving transparent guidance by our Tribunal, to ensure our individual sovran actions reflect upon us all in a good way, across the Original Peoples of the lands of Kanat'an. (Turtle Island, Sacred Lands).

Tell us about yourself

At this point in your journey, you have had opportunity to learn about Peoples of the Salmon from other Wolverines, the Original Peoples of the Salmon, Peoples of the Salmon website knowledge, individual chats, and through our Sunday meetings, which you have attended (at least four), either in the longhouse or via Zoom/Jitsi, and other live video links. Your motivation and desire to become a member of the Wolverine Clan fills our hearts with joy and love!

Please allow us now to learn a little more about you before you walk off the ship of commerce. Your willing transparency will help us to discover how to share your brilliance, strengths, love and light in building our collective future. What we collectively create today will ensure a future world and way of life bound by the highest truest laws in our lands, Natural Law.

What attracted you to become a Wolverine, to Unite with Peoples of the Salmon and walk with the lands as a Sovran, living within Natural Law of the Original Peoples of Kanat'an?

What would you like to do as a Sovran Wolverine? Sometimes it is hard to think about what we are good at, so here are some ideas/questions to explore.

Are you an organizer/leader/self-driven, or do you prefer to accomplish tasks with structured guidance? Are you a man or woman who loves to interact directly, publicly, socially, or do you prefer to engage and contribute within smaller groups of men and women? Are you a physically active hands-on individual, or are you the one who enjoys researching content via internet, libraries and technology?

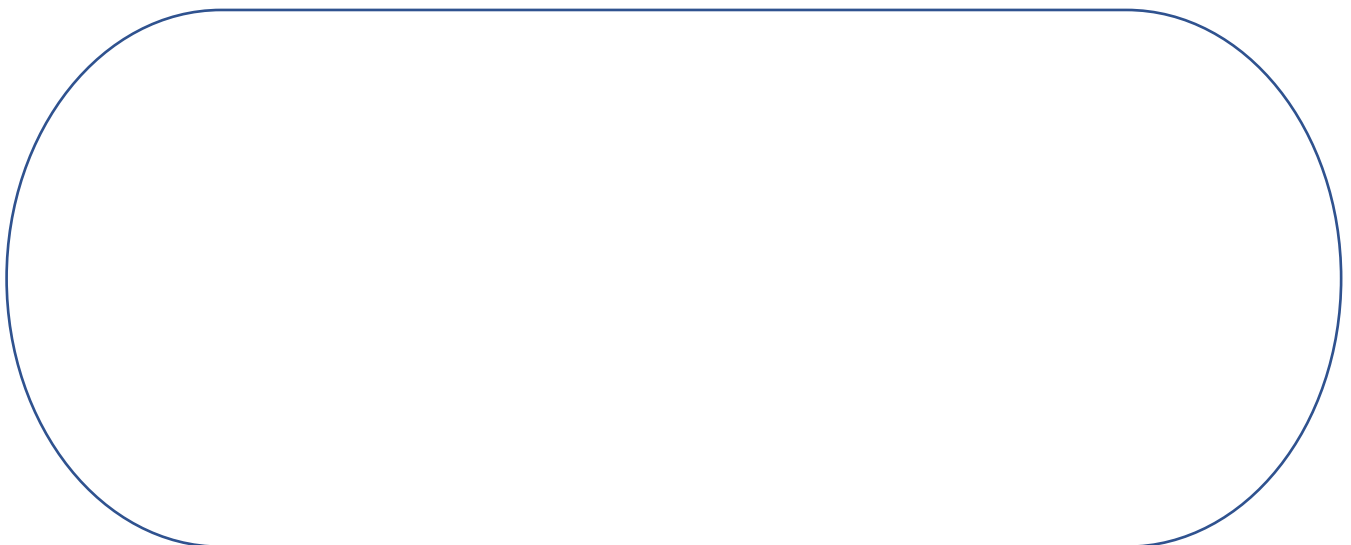

There is a place for everyone, as we are all unique and possess individual strengths! What are your Strengths and or skills?

What activities/hobbies do you really enjoy?

Our collective future is being created within the concepts of the Saa Geithl. After exploring this, where and how do you see yourself contributing and participating within the Saa Saa Geithl?

We are a loving, peaceful, talented, dedicated community here to assist in your transition every step of the way. We understand there is a great deal of knowledge you have already absorbed. Do you have any additional comments, thoughts, visions, questions, or concerns that may be addressed and answered before you step off the ship of commerce?

Annual contributions by all Wolverines, is essential to collectively build our future. Additional fees will apply for administration and formal documents, ID and sovereign passport documents. We understand everyone's situation is unique and some may desire to contribute in trade or barter. Please indicate which ways you are able to contribute physically/energetically in place of currency, if that is an issue for you. A continuous physical contribution of your energy and time is how we are in fact, building our children's future world under Natural Law.
